

Publications

This is a compilation of articles and publications that our school teachers have carried out in educational/scientific journals, with a variety of themes that focus on how the 132nd Primary School approaches the contemporary educational reality.